

KEEP CLIMBING

December 14, 2020

Supporting You & Your Travelers

Keeping you informed on the latest news from Delta

Flexibility & Waivers

NEW Delta is making it easier for customers to book, change or cancel travel plans by permanently eliminating change fees for tickets when flying internationally from North America. Read more.

Flight Schedule

NEW Delta announced the schedule for Delta's dedicated COVID-tested flights from Atlanta to Amsterdam, which begin on Dec. 15. Read more. Keep up with the latest travel requirements and check out where we are currently flying.

Awards & Recognition

NEW FlightGlobal's Decade of Airline Excellence Award recognized Delta as the world's best-performing airline of the past 10 years, as well as the top North American airline. Read more.

In the Community

NEW Thirty-seven founding companies and CEOs, including Delta and Ed Bastian, are joining to form OneTen, an organization that will recruit, hire, train and advance 1 million Black Americans over the next 10 years. Read more.

Delta CareStandardSM

Starting Dec. 15, Delta will be the first U.S. airline to ask customers traveling to the U.S. from an international location to voluntarily aid contact tracing and public health follow-up efforts. Read more.

Delta will extend our industry-leading commitment to provide more space for customers as the only U.S. airline blocking middle seats for flights departing now through March 30, 2021. Read more.

Cargo News

After successful vaccine test shipments earlier this year, Delta has capabilities in place to support vaccine shipments across the world, including large warehouses and cooler facilities in Atlanta, Detroit, Los Angeles, New York-JFK and Seattle, and a network of 49 certified Pharma airports across the globe. Read more.

More Information

Visit delta.com for more information on For more information on safety and cleanliness and travel routes and waivers.